

Ginger Harper

Ginger serves as the Chief of Policy and Communication, overseeing policy engagement at the local, state, and federal level, and managing the outreach and communications efforts of the agency. Prior to joining the Kansas Water Office, she served as a Senior Legislative Assistant for Congresswoman Lynn Jenkins (KS-02) in Washington, D.C. Ginger also has experience as a Government Affairs Specialist with K&L Gates, LLP, and held numerous positions within the office of then-Senator Sam Brownback (R-KS).

She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from Pittsburg State University, and a Master's Degree in International Relations from Brunel University in London, UK. While in D.C., She participated in the Partnership for a Secure America Congressional Partnership Program and the WeLead Women & Politics Institute Leadership Training Program.

Ginger grew up on her family's farm in northeast Kansas where she remains engaged in agriculture production. Upon relocating to Topeka with her family, she has gotten involved in the community through the Junior League of Topeka.